Another great night at Hampden Park

The Scottish Football Hall of Fame Dinner 2018 is set to be a 'must attend' event for any fan of Scottish football. A glittering night of who's who in Scottish Football will recognise the truly great players, managers and officials who have made a significant contribution to the nation's football reputation.

This year's inductees will be announced at a star-studded dinner at Hampden Park on Sunday 21st October in association with Hampden Conference & Events and Prestige Sodexo.

The inductees are those truly great players, managers and officials who have reached the pinnacle of their profession and have made a significant contribution to Scottish football's reputation through their skill, spirit and determination.

This year's guest of honour is Scotland's National Coach Alex McLeish.

Following this year's inductions Alex will be in conversation with our host Dougie Donnelly discussing his career as a player and manager for what promises to be another truly entertaining evening.
